HARDING LEAVES FOR SOUTH FOR SHORT VACATION

Expects To Arrive At Destination Early Saturday.

CONFERENCES GOOD
"Best Minds" In Nation Have Conferred With President-elect.

On Board Senator Harding's Train, Jan. 21.—President-elect Harding enjoyed today his first real opportunity to relax from the duties which have crowded up on him since his return from Panama.

He is looking forward eagerly to the first real outdoor exercise he has had for nearly two months. When he reaches St. Augustine he will change into golf clothes as soon as possible and weather permitting will play 18 holes before boarding Senator Frelinghuysen's houseboat next Saturday night.

The conferences of "best minds" in Marion, it is known, have been productive of much real information and valuable advice to the president-elect but they have also placed a heavy demand on his time and energy.

Men and women throughout the country have made strenuous efforts to be parties to those conferences both with and without invitations. Scores of messages have been sent Senator Harding asking for appointments and requesting that in replying he refrain from mention of the request.

There is no question but that the object of such messages was to make it appear that the president-elect had issued an invitation without solicitation from the person granted the appointment. Some of the persons received merely to give opportunity to present their respects, have complained strenuously after their departure that the publicity given their visits was inadequate to their importance. The job hunters he has had nearly always with him in varying numbers.

The itinerary of the Harding party through Chattanooga, Atlanta and Jacksonville, is expected to land him at his destination Saturday morning. The Harding home at Marion has been leased to Millard Hunt, of Marion.

"FLYING GRANDMAS" READY TO HOP OFF ON SECOND FLIGHT

Nebraska Women Carry State's Electoral Vote To Washington.

Des Moines, Jan. 21.—Nebraska's "flying grandmas" carrying that state's electoral vote by airplane from Lincoln to the national capital, were to "hop off" early today on the second leg of their unusual journey. The women, Mrs. W. H. Wheeler and Mrs. Draper Smith, each of whom has grand children, reached here late yesterday after flying from Omaha in one hour and 40 minutes. Stops were to be made at Iowa City and Davenport, Ia., Chicago, where they are expected to arrive about noon, and Cleveland. Several other stops will be made in points in Ohio and Pennsylvania before Washington is reached.

FRAZER LEAVES FOR CHICAGO AFTER MEET

Columbus, Jan. 21.—Following a conference with Gov. Davis and legislators at the governor's office, George E. Frazer, who aided in reorganizing the state departments of Illinois under former Governor Lowden, has returned to Chicago. He is expected to take part in another conference here next week with Gov. Davis and members of the legislative committee on reorganization when definite plans are to be mapped out to reorganizing Ohio's state government machinery.

VETERINARY MEDICAL ASSOCIATION MEETS

Columbus, Jan. 21.—Today's program at the 38th annual convention of the Ohio Veterinary Medical Association, in session here, includes discussion of sanitary science and a clinic at which a demonstration will be made of administering the tuberculin test to 11 tubercular cows.

More than 300 members are attending the convention.

Dr. C. H. Case, Akron, has been elected president of the association. Dr. W. G. Cliffe, Upper Sandusky, vice president; Dr. L. A. Lambert, Columbus, secretary and Dr. C. D. Hyde, Columbus treasurer.

LOYD GEORGE NOT EXACTLY CORRECT

London, Jan. 21.—In contradiction to Premier Lloyd George's statement that the government now has murder in Ireland "by the throat" advice from Dublin up to noon reported seven policemen killed and four wounded in the past twenty-four hours. In two different districts men were reported to have been taken from their beds by black and tans and shot in the presence of their wives.

BRITISH BATTLE SINN FEINERS; MANY WOUNDED

Fighting Occurs In a Suburb Of Dublin Early Friday.

SOLDIERS AMBUSHED

Attackers Are Routed By Reinforcements Sent From Behind.

London, Jan. 21.—A violent battle between Sinn Feiners and military policemen has just been fought near Dublin according to an incomplete telegram received this afternoon from the Irish capital. It was indicated that the casualties were heavy.

A second dispatch received from Dublin later in the day gave further details.

The battle was fought in a suburb of Dublin. Sinn Feiners prepared an ambush upon a bridge in the Drumcondra district to await a detachment of black and tans that were expected to enter the city. The British authorities heard of the preparations and rushed both troops and policemen to the scene. The fighting had started before the soldiers and policemen arrived. The relief force spread out and attacked the Sinn Feiners in the rear, the latter taking flight. Six of the Sinn Feiners were captured. One of the wounded prisoners was reported dying.

A heavy force of Sinn Feiners prepared an ambush outside of Dublin for crown forces, but were taken by surprise.

In the battle that followed rifles and bombs were used on both sides. Reinforcements of black and tans were rushed from Dublin and the attackers were caught in a trap but most of them were able to escape.

(The Dublin dispatch to the London bureau of the I. N. S. was received in fragmentary form in London at 1:10 p. m. It had the appearance of having been censored.)

WANTED TWO MEN AT $12,000 YEARLY JOBS GO BEGGING

Washington, Jan. 21.—Wanted: Two men at $12,000 a year each for four years.

Applicants can fit into soft berths vacant on the directorate of the war finance corporation.

Easy work; short hours; self-running office; upholstered comforts when at work; unlimited mechanical help and other offices luxuries, besides big pay.

Secretary of the Treasury Houston said today after a long search: "The jobs attractive but available men can't be found."

A half dozen eligibles already have been presented to the president, by Secretary Houston but apparently none of them want the jobs.

Both Democrats and Republicans have declined them.

Big financiers tendered the places merely laugh at the salary attached. The President, it is said, will fill the places as soon as Secretary Houston can find "available."

MRS. WILBUR LEWIS DIES IN BOWERSVILLE

Mrs. Wilbur Lewis passed away at her home in Bowersville, Wednesday afternoon at one o'clock, following an illness of several days. She is survived by her husband, and three children, Claude, Flossie and Frederick, and her mother, Mrs. Rosa Haughey of Bowersville, and two sisters, Mrs. William Adams, of Bowersville, Mr. Elmer Smith, of Blainville, and Willis Haughey, of Xenia, and Albert Haughey, of Bowersville.

Funeral services were held at the Methodist Episcopal church, and burial took place at Bowersville.

Chicago, Jan. 21.—The trial of Frank Panno, who invoked the patriarchal code of the ancients giving life and death over its members, when he shot and killed his 18 year old son, Frank, Jr., to "save the boy's soul" was continued today to January 31 "for disposal" by Judge John Fitch in criminal court.

Failure of Tony Pellegrina, star witness of the defense, to appear when the case was called for today, caused the continuance.

SCHWAB BRANDS FALSE CHARGE OF COL. ABADIE

Head Of Bethlehem Declares He Did Not Charge Shipping Board With $260,000 For His Personal Expenses During October 1918.

New York, Jan. 21.—Charles M. Schwab head of the Bethlehem Steel Corporation and former director general of shipbuilding for the Emergency Fleet Corporation, appeared before the Walsh congressional investigating committee and unqualifiedly denied that the shipping board had been charged with $260,000 for his personal expenses during October 1918. This charge had been made under oath by Colonel E. H. Abadie former comptroller general of the shipping board.

When the congressional committee which is investigating activities of the shipping board resumed its sessions, Schwab and Eugene R. Grace, president of the Bethlehem Steel Corporation, were on hand.

Schwab declared that Col. Abadie's charge were "absolutely and maliciously false."

There was no charge for personal expenses of mine ever placed against the shipping board or Emergency Fleet Corporation," Schwab testified. "I defy anyone furthermore to show any vouchers for personal expenses on the books of the Bethlehem shipbuilding corporation."

Col. Abadie had testified that owing to alleged irregularities in the accounts of shipbuilding firms holding "cost plus" government contracts, he had desired to show up flagrant accounting methods and to make an "example" had obtained permission to have a public accounting firm to go over the Bethlehem Shipbuilding company's books. Later he said, Judge John Barton Payne, chairman of the shipping board endeavored to stop the audit and it was resumed only after Bernard M. Baruch had insisted that to abandon the audit would bring the whole shipping board into disrepute. Col. Abadie asserted it was finally decided to have two audits, results of which did not jibe and that he was forced to resign for his efforts to stop leaks in the shipping boards purse from which millions of dollars, he testified, illegally found their way into pockets of shipbuilders.

"Nothing in connection with my personal expenses ever was charged against the government," said Schwab. "I was particularly careful to see that there never would be a possibility of an insinuation of this kind made against me."

He said he would gladly appear any time to tell anything he might know "in connection with the operation of the Bethlehem shipbuilding corporation."

ROBBERS CONFISCATE LIQUOR, POSING AS DRY AUTHORITIES

Cincinnati Man Is Robbed By A Gang Of Thieves.

Cincinnati, Jan. 21.—"We mean business, don't start anything,"

This statement, backed up by a pistol, was the warning that saluted the ears of Larz F. Anderson, when he answered a ring at the doorbell of his home at 237 E. Hill Ave., Wednesday evening. Two men were at the door. He was alone in the house. His mother, Mrs. Larz W. Anderson, had gone downtown.

"Where's the whisky? We are prohibition officers," said one of the men displaying a badge.

Mr. Anderson was taken by surprise, but realized that the men were robbers as they pushed past the half open door.

"Now, show us where the whisky is," said the men.

"It is in the attic," replied Anderson, "but it is locked up and I haven't the key."

"We'll go up there anyhow," said the men, who kept their pistols menacingly in sight.

They accompanied Anderson to the attic, lifted the door off its hinges and filled a large clothes hamper with 20 bottles of whiskey and gin. Then they had Anderson accompany them downstairs.

As they sauntered down the path they met Mrs. Larz Anderson returning home. The latter inquired of the men who they were.

"We are prohibition officers," was the reply. "And we are confiscating this liquor."

Meanwhile a rather dilapidated closed car had been awaiting them. It was in charge of a third man. Entering this machine with the hamper of whisky, they sped away.

KETTERING MEMBER GOOD ROADS BOARD

Columbus, Jan. 21.—Officers of the Ohio good roads federation, chosen at a meeting of members here, are: William T. Calderine, Cincinnati, president, succeeding Royal R. Scott, Toledo; Judge Maurice H. Donahue of the federal circuit court of appeals, Cincinnati, vice president; T. R. Dahl, Cleveland, elected treasurer and W. A. Alsford, Columbus, secretary.

Harry Miller, R. E. Lee and Andrew A. Miller, Akron, and C. F. Kettering, Dayton, are among the new members of the board of trustees.

WHISKEY SHIPMENTS TO U. S. GREATER SINCE DRY ERA

London, Jan. 21.—Purchases of Scotch whisky here for export to the United States now exceed the demand before prohibition became law, the Daily Express says.

The head of one of the largest liquor concerns of the country said: "We send the whisky to a certain port for delivery to persons who have large American connections. How they dispose of the goods we do not know, but we have reason to believe that they go to America where they are sold at an enormous profit. American prohibition has not hit British liquor manufacturers."

MARRIED FOURTH TIME IN EAST

New York, Jan. 21.—Owen Johnson, author and son of Robert Underwood Johnson, American Ambassador to Italy, was married here to Miss Catherine Sayre Burton, prominent socially.

The ceremony was performed in St. George's chapel.

This is Mr. Johnson's fourth matrimonial venture. His first two wives are dead and the third divorced him in 1917, at Reno.

BRITISH DEBT QUESTION NOW FACES HARDING

Problem Marked Off Wilson Administration Calendar.

SITUATION HOPELESS

Belief Expressed That Entire Basis Of Adjustment Changed

Washington, Jan. 21.—The British debt problem was finally marked off the Wilson administration calendar today. Along with the tariff and tax problems and other major questions, it definitely reached the stage where the Harding cabinet must assume full responsibility for settlement. The treasury, therefore, settled down to closing up other matters now pressing for consideration and thrust aside an elaborate schedule for the British parlays abruptly disarranged by England's postponement of conferences with American representatives.

Secretary of the Treasury Houston, this government's chief representative in the English debt negotiations, frankly acknowledged for the first time today that adjustment of the British debt question by the present administration is now practically hopeless. The secretary after scanning latest advices from London, transmitted through the state department, was assured today that the arrival of Lord Chalmers, British secretary of finance, probably will be delayed until late in February and there was a suggestion of even further delay in his departure from London.

Lord Chalmers may reach Washington the latter part of February but the starting of conferences at so late a period, will render it impossible to reach any agreement before I go out of office," Secretary Houston said. He declined to comment upon the probable reason for the delay.

Change Plans

Around the treasury there was a well defined belief among those in most intimate touch with the recent events in London and Washington that the entire basis for adjustment of the English debt may be radically changed. Secretary Houston maintained the utmost reticence. But the impression exists that England may soon come forward after President Harding is inaugurated with proposals, newly framed and bereft of some of the sought for "concessions" which they have stressed in the preliminary conferences here on the debt question.

Sir Auckland Geddes, it became known today, is carrying to London and will lay before the Lloyd George cabinet in a day or two "impressions" gained in talks with officials here with respect to the debt settlement and other matters closely linked up with it and officials here feel that he cannot escape the duty of bringing home recommendations for remedies along certain fiscal lines. Ambassador Geddes in conference both with state and treasury departments is said to have been told in plain language that the British debt might be arranged upon terms which might meet with general approval in America as well as in England, if there could be some show of sincere effort by England to rectify some of her own budget and other problems in a way that would make a solution of the debt question less complicated and less open to public disapproval.

MRS. HARDING WILL DEMAND AMERICAN GOODS, NOT IMPORTED

Shopping to Be Inexpensive in New York and Washington.

Marion, O., Jan. 21.—When Mrs. Warren G. Harding shops in New York she will have but few places to visit. The abandonment of the elaborate inaugural program has obviated the necessity for certain gowns and it is expected that her shopping tour while a necessary one at this time in view of the calls upon her time later, will be soon concluded.

Importers, it is understood from her close friends will have small opportunity to profit from her visit. Her slogan, her friends state will be: "I'm an American woman, show me American goods."

Mrs. Harding is a great lover of the theatre and it is said expects to attend a number of the latest theatrical successes during her stay in New York and Washington.

Inez McWhirter, the Harding cook, queen of the waffle makers of Ohio, will accompany Mrs. Harding to Washington. Mrs. Harding will also retain Brown, her colored butler when she becomes mistress of the White House.

CARUSO'S VOICE NOT INJURED

New York, Jan. 21.—Enrico Caruso's golden voice has not been injured by his illness, his wife declared today. Mrs. Caruso said the tenor's voice is good as ever.

NO HOPE FOR SOLUTION OF DISARMAMENT PLAN UNTIL HARDING ACTS

SENATE PASSES REYNOLDS BILL AIDING POLICE

Measure Provides Killing Officer On Duty Is First Degree Murder.

LIABILITY LAW PASSED

Drivers Held Equally Responsible With Owners.

Columbus, O., Jan. 21.—An old age pension bill was introduced in the house today by Rep. J. H. Chadwell, Jefferson county.

The bill provides that persons over 64 years of age, whose annual income does not exceed $500 and whose property possessions are not valued at over $2,500, may receive an annual pension, paid from the state treasury, not exceeding $350. The pension is to be divided into 12 installments, all to be paid within a year.

General supervision of the enforcement of the proposed law is placed in the hands of a four membered state pension commission, to be appointed by the governor. Each member of the commission is to receive $4,500 a year.

In each county there is to be a county welfare board consisting of the probate judge, common pleas judge and county auditor. The county board is to handle the cases arising within its respective county.

Columbus, O., Jan. 21.—Without an opposing vote the senate passed the bill, introduced by Senator Reynolds, Cleveland, marking it first degree murder to kill police officer while that official is on duty. The jury, however, is given power to recommend mercy. The bill now goes to the house.

The senate unanimously passed the bill, by Senator Cornell, Shreve, making drivers of autos equally liable with owners for damages incurred in auto accidents which are due to negligence. This bill goes to the house, also.

The senate has concurred in the plan of the house for a joint legislative committee on Americanization to serve until a permanent state department is created. The committee is announced are to be appointed Monday.

A bill has been introduced by Senator Kryder, McClure, decreeing that cream shall contain at least 10 percent milk fat and whipped cream 30 percent fat.

Senator Cornell introduced a bill seeking to compel long distance telephone companies to make connection with any local company upon request.

Removal of screens from pool rooms and soft drink places, giving full view from the street, is required in a bill introduced by Senator Bender, Guyahoga county.

A bill providing for the creation of an electrical inspection division under the supervision of the state industrial commission was introduced by Rep. Muhleman, Muskingum county.

Representative King, Stark county, offered a bill providing for the establishment of a county rural police force, by vote of the people, in any county.

BRAND REPORT OF CONSPIRACY UNTRUE IN DUTCH MESSAGE

Entire Story Is Fiction Declares Government Statement.

Berlin, Jan. 21.—The report that the former kaiser and the ex-crown prince had been found implicated in a German revolutionary conspiracy by the Dutch government, was branded as completely false in the following official statement received here today from Hague:

"The Netherlands government has no information as to the alleged conspiracy of the ex-kaiser and his son. The report of the arrest of the former prince's valet is the purest fiction. The Netherlands government is certain that neither the former kaiser nor the crown prince had any such intention."

It was reported here that the story was put out by certain politicians for the purpose of raising a monarchist scare to influence the Russian election on Feb. 20.

PROBE JAP HOLDINGS

Washington, Jan. 21.—Japan's action in retaining the Pacific cables touching the island of Yap will be investigated by the senate foreign relations committee.

Supports Of Scheme Are Going Ahead With Plans.

IT IS UP TO HARDING

No Action Will Be Taken That Might Embarrass New Chief

Washington, Jan. 21.—While even the most enthusiastic supporters of a disarmament understanding with the leading powers of the world admitted today there is no hope of action for months yet, they never the less are going resolutely ahead with the agitation of the question so that when the new administration comes into power it will have at least a ground work to build on.

The whole question of approaching the world powers with disarmament proposals is so inextricably woven with the probable foreign policy of the Harding administration that no action can be done until after March 4. Between those who favor some sort of an international understanding and those who do not, are a great majority who want to see the Harding association of nations plan before committing this government to any policy.

By March 4, however, the views of most of the leading statesmen of the country will be on record on this question. The senate foreign affairs committee adopted a middle course by making the Borah resolution a "general statement of policy" before reporting it out. The original Borah resolution provided for a tripartite agreement between the United States, Great Britain and Japan and a fifty per cent reduction.

No Action Taken

There is no desire, even among the most partisan Democrats, to take any action which might prove embarrassing to the Harding administration in its dealings with foreign governments. At the same time, those who favor reduction or total disarmament do not want to let congress lose sight of the idea.

Senator Philander C. Knox of Pennsylvania, who divides with Senator Lodge, of Massachusetts, the greatest activity in foreign affairs at the capital distinctly does not favor any definite action at this time. He pointed out that it is incongruous, to say the least, for the United States to take any action looking to disarmament while we are technically at war with Germany.

Senator Knox opposes any action affecting on naval or military establishments or involving us in agreements with other countries until the status of war declared to exist between the United States and Germany is officially declared at end, and until the conduct of our foreign relations passes into the hands of the Republican president to whom the people have committed them.

His colleagues conceded the reasonableness of his attitude, but at the same time, thought it would do "no harm" to report out the Borah resolution at a general statement of policy.

Introduce Resolution

According to present plans, Senator Knox will introduce soon after the new session begins his resolution declaring that the state of war with Germany is at an end. Then when the country once more at peace, and a new foreign policy in the making, it is believed that some definite action toward disarmament will be taken.

Senator Borah does not intend to let his resolution die and be forgotten. He proposed to call it up every now and then if only for the purpose of discussion.

Meanwhile the house committee on naval affairs will continue its hearings and go on compiling the widely divergent views of military and naval leaders.

The committee today hoped to hear General John J. Pershing, whose position as commander in chief of the A. E. F. gave him extraordinary opportunities to ascertain the views of the world's great military figures. The committee also hopes to hear in the next few weeks Henry White, one of the American peace negotiators at Paris and former Secretary of State Lansing, likewise a peace commissioner.

SEVENTY THOUSAND DOLLARS RECOVERED

Mount Vernon, Ills., Jan. 21.—Seventy thousand dollars of the $197,000 stolen in registered mail pouches in this city Friday last, was recovered today when postal authorities working on the case ran down a telephone message from an auto wrecking plant. Two men connected with the plant telephoned the officers to come and get the money. When they arrived it was given to them with the explanation that it had been found in a garage near the postoffice and brought to the auto wrecking plant by an employee.

Six men are being held in connection with the robbery.

"DAYLIGHT SAVING" URGED

Philadelphia, January 21.—City Council by a vote of 18 to 1 passed a resolution urging the State Legislature to enact a "daylight saving" law.

NEW WATER SYSTEM WILL BE PLACED AT ANTIOCH COLLEGE

The installation of a new water system and of a new sewage and sanitation system, will be among the first improvement steps taken at Antioch College, according to the decision of the board of trustees which held a conference in Dayton Wednesday.

Arthur E. Morgan, president of the school, has announced that definite improvement plans for the school have not been fully decided upon, but that within the next three months the scope of improvements to be undertaken will be given out.

At present the water supply of the institution comes from wells, and as there is no force water system, either at the college or in the village of Yellow Springs, the sanitation system has been crude. A complete water system will be installed at the school among the first of the improvements, and plumbing will be installed for a modern sewage system. The name of Frank A. Vanderlip and Joseph P. Cotton, of New York, on the board of trustees of the college, has served to add further impetus to the activities of that body in behalf of the Yellow Springs institution.

With The Women of Today

The smallest newspaper in the United States is published by Miss Alice C. Nichols of Liberal, Kansas. She is fifteen years old and in addition to doing all the reporting and editorial writing for her paper, "The Nichols Journal," she sets type and makes up forms for each of the four pages. It is printed on the presses of the Liberal Democrat after the young woman editor has locked it up and "put it to bed."

The Nichols Journal was first started when Miss Alice was nine years old. Her brother and some of their friends were organizing what they called "Tiny Town" and declared they needed a newspaper. Alice was appointed to the job and she wrote the first issues by hand. Later she learned to use the type writer and printed her paper with the aid of a compositing.

Miss Alice C. Nichols.

After Tiny Town had ceased its corporate existence she continued her paper as "the Nichols Journal" and soon had over a hundred subscribers who paid for the paper delivered weekly. By this time she found it too much of a job to type-write a newspaper and out of the earnings of the business purchased several cases full of type and some chases and set up her "staff" herself in real newspaper fashion.

Contrary to expectations, Miss Nichols' hobby is not newspaper work. "That is my chosen profession," she said when asked the question. "My real hobby is parties, though I like basketball a whole lot."

She plans after she finishes her high school course to take a journalism course in the state university. John L. Hubble, playwright and author of "Daddies" has appointed himself circulation manager of the Nichols Journal and declares he will start a circulation campaign for the paper in New York City, following his return there after a lecture tour through the west.

WILBERFORCE

The Girls Basket Ball Team played its initial game of the season Monday evening in Chillicothe. The quick passes and organized team work of the Wilberforce six brought them a winning score of nine to three.

The Alpha Sorority and Kappa Alpha Psi Fraternity were the guests of their prospective members and pledges at a reception given at the residence of Supt. William Berry Saturday evening. The parlors were beautifully decorated with colors of the sorority and fraternity, salmon pink and apple green, crimson and cream. Mr. Henderson gave the welcome address to the guests which was responded to by Miss Tressie Clark, president of the Sorority and Mr. Murray president of the fraternity. Among out-of-town guests were Misses Gladys Scott of Xenia, and Ena M. Bryant, Helen M. Fox and Mary E. Dickerson of Indianapolis.

Preparations are being made to celebrate Founder's Day, February 24th. Mr. George David, chairman of the general committee, has started the organization of clubs among the students to raise funds. Prominent speakers will attend and the authorities of the school anticipate the biggest financial rally in the history of the school.

A reception was given by the General Faculty to Rev. John A. Gregg, the new president of the university, last Tuesday evening in the assembly hall of Arnett Hall. The greeting was delivered by Dean Gilbert H. Jones, which was responded to by Pres. Gregg. A quartet consisting of Messrs. George Simpson, Charles

COLDS

"Pape's Cold Compound"
Breaks any Cold
in Few Hours

Instant Relief! Don't stay "stuffed-up!" Quit blowing and snuffling! A dose of Pape's Cold Compound taken every two hours until three doses are taken usually breaks any cold right up.

The first dose opens clogged-up nostrils and air passages of head; stops nose running; relieves headache, dullness, feverishness, sneezing.

"Pape's Cold Compound" is quickest, surest relief known and costs only a few cents at drug stores. It acts without assistance. Tastes nice. Contains no quinine. Insist upon Pape's.

Easy Way To Ward Off Cold

It's better to take a few pleasant little tablets and ward off a cold than to pay big doctor bills and lie in bed for days or weeks with pneumonia.

During the fall and winter months when grippe and pneumonia keep the doctors busy, health authorities urge everyone to "Watch out for symptoms of colds and get after them right off." Take no chances. At the first sign of sniffing and sneezing get a box of Lightning Laxative Quinine Tablets and stop the cold within 24 hours. Lightning Laxative Quinine Tablets are safe, pleasant; never gripe or sicken. Drugists guarantee them. Only 25c per box.

What About the Future of Xenia

This is an interesting question and one about which the people of this community should think.

When Abraham Lincoln was splitting rails or clerking in a country grocery store, or practicing as a country lawyer, we fancy him asking himself the question: "In this big, busy world, what chance have I?" We fancy him, also, answering the question by saying: "My future depends upon myself. My success will be bounded only by my physical and mental resources, my energy, my determination, and my worth as a man who can do things."

Lincoln's rise from obscurity to leadership among men is typical of what determination, grit, energy and self-confidence will accomplish for any man.

These same qualities which make for man's success are equally necessary to the success of a business, an institution, or a city.

Possessing moral and physical resources, any man or group of men may set out with a definite plan, with fixed ideals, with self-confidence and determination, with grit to stand the rebuffs and hard knocks which experience will bring, and achieve success in the proportion that the net results of their efforts tend to serve society.

What we are, as well as what we hope to be as individuals or as a community of individuals, depends upon ourselves. If we have ambitions as a community to grow and prosper, we must follow the rules and play the game. We must take stock of our resources, adopt plans, set our faces toward our goal, and work together diligently to accomplish our common purpose. We must get enthused for the success of our city. We must think success and work for it.

If everybody in Xenia would begin the New Year as a booster for Xenia and resolve to patronize our stores and demand such products as are made or grown here, instead of shopping in nearby cities or purchasing products that are shipped in here and sold in competition with products made in Xenia, we would soon see new industries started, more labor employed, and more wealth produced here. Many of our boys who are now being educated here and forced to leave to find opportunities in other cities, would remain here, and instead of Xenia furnishing leaders of industry for other cities, we would conserve their talents for our own community or organization.

Let's not say it can't be done—Let's do it!

The money you are spending for food and clothing, tools and implements in other cities, is helping to build these other cities at the expense of Xenia's growth and prosperity.

Let's resolve here, and now that we are going to keep our money at home and that, henceforth, we will demand products that are made here, in preference to similar products that are shipped here to sell in competition.

Yours for Xenia's growth!

Hampshire Sows

Friday, January 28th, 1921

At Central Carage In Cedarville.

These sows represent the best blood-lines in the breed and are bred to high class boars, for March and April pigs. We raise 400 to 500 Hampshires each year and they are the best brood sows we have ever found.

J. M. Ballard, of Indiana, in 1920, had 72 sows to raise him 654 pigs. They must be good mothers to do that.

Hampshires have won the Grand Champion Carload lot for past three years in succession at the Chicago International. The car lots in 1918 found the Hampshires selling $2.40 above the top price of any other show hogs. In 1919 they sold for $6.10 above the top of the market, a record never attained by any other breed. In 1920 the Hampshires sold for $4.50 per hundred above the market. The Hampshire car in 1920 was the youngest first-prize winning car in the show.

You may ask why, the reason is found in the fact that they dressed from 85 to 90% of their live weight.

14,300 new breeders bought their first registered Hampshires in 1920.

You have tried the rest now try the best.

This is your chance.

Will be glad to mail catalog upon request.

Crisp and Snappy Wintery Air Should Make Your Blood Tingle

YOU SHOULD ENJOY OUTDOORS

Pepto-Mangan Will Fill Your Blood With Vital Red Corpuscles, Able to Stand Cold Weather

Some people dread cold weather. The least frost in the air shrivels them up. They put on heavy flannels, hug the fires and still feel cold. It is pretty safe to say that people like that have thin, weak blood.

On the other hand you see other people who take on a healthy glow in cold weather. Their blood shows red on their cheeks and the color of their lips is heightened. They step out briskly, breathe in the cold air and it seems to act like a tonic.

That's what it means to have plenty of rich, healthy blood. The ozone in cold air touches the good blood in the lungs and puts new vigor into the body. You square your shoulders. The sting of clean, crisp, cold air feels pleasant. You really enjoy the cold.

On the other hand, people with bodies that are fed with weak, impoverished blood, lacking in red corpuscles, hate cold air. Their faces and lips seem to turn blue and look pinched. Their eyes look watery. There's no pleasure in winter for them.

So be sure your blood is healthy. Perhaps it needs a lift right now. Pepto-Mangan will tone your blood up to its normal state. Doctors have prescribed it for years because it has the right ingredients to make new blood. Besides, it is easy to take. Comes in tablet or liquid form. Both have the same medicinal value.

Make certain that you get the genuine Pepto-Mangan. Ask for "Gude's" and see that the name, "Gude's Pepto-Mangan," is on the package. adv

FARMERS' INSTITUTE HELD NEXT WEEK AT CAESARCREEK

The Caesarcreek Township Farmers' Annual Institute will be held this year on January 26 and 27 in the Caesarcreek High School.

There will be five sessions opening Wednesday morning, January 26, with a song by the high school. Following invocation, Mrs. Velorous Martz, of Columbus, will speak on the subject of "Birds About the Farm" using bird house models. "Lime and Clover" will be the subject of C. H. Swan, of Applereck, Wayne County, Ohio, followed by a discussion. The morning program includes a piano solo by Miss Mabel Davis.

Misses Vera Jones and Cordelia Miller will open the afternoon session with a piano duet "Safety First Policies" will be the subject of Mr. Swan's address, followed by a piano solo by Miss Wanda Hartsook and a recitation by Miss Mary Smith. Mrs. Martz will speak at this session on "Care of the Sick in the Home," and the discussion following will be led by Dr. R. L. Taines.

In the evening the Grange orchestra will be present. Following the address "Deliver the Goods" by Mr. Swan, Misses Marie Garber and Mary Esther Haines will furnish a vocal duet. Mrs. Martz is on the evening program for an address on "A Community Experience" and on G. C. Foltz will speak on "The Community Church."

The Thursday morning session will open at 9:45 o'clock with music by the orchestra. Mrs. Martz will speak on the subject of "How the University Can Help the Home," and "Wheat and the cost of growing" will be the subject of Mr. Swan's address. The institute program will be concluded with the afternoon program. Mr. Swan's subject will be "Co-operative Marketing of Farm Products," followed by a discussion led by County Agent Ford S. Prince. Ernest McKay will give a recitation at this session, and Clyde Northup of Clifton, Ohio will speak on "Poultry Raising." Mrs. Martz concluding address will be on "Woman's Work." Lunch will be served each day.

COURT NEWS

Plaintiff Favored

An injunction suit filed by C. L. Darlington against the P. C. C. & St. L. Railroad, enjoining the defendant company from any claim to a certain piece of property on the company's line between this city and Dayton, was upheld in favor of the plaintiff in opinion just issued by the Court of Appeals. The motion of the defendant company for a new trial was overruled.

RUTHRAUFF FAVORED

An order favoring the plaintiff is contained in an entry received from the court of appeals in the case of William M. Ruthrauff, plaintiff in error, against Alice R. Ruthrauff, defendant in error. The court upheld the charge of the plaintiff that the service of certain papers made in the divorce case of Mrs. Ruthrauff against her husband, was not proper or legal.

CARD OF THANKS

The family desire to thank the pastor, Rev. Brown, Miss Hornick and Miss Allen for their beautiful singing and our many neighbors and friends who were so kind during our bereavement. Thank friends for many beautiful flowers, Mr. Nagley for his thoughtful kindness. Mrs. A. Melvina Garrard and family.

FUNERAL SERVICES HELD THURSDAY

Funeral services for Joseph Garrard were held at two o'clock Thursday afternoon at the residence at Whitman and Third streets. Two hymns were sung at the service, "Abide With Me," and "Jesus Lover of My Soul," by Miss Almeda Allen and Miss Agnes Hornick. Members of Lewis Post of the G. A. R. of which Mr. Garrard was a member held their ritualistic services at the residence at the close of the services. The pall bearers were Otto Hornick, William Smith, Roy Spahr, Frank Hagler, John Stout, and William Butcher. Burial was made at Woodland cemetery.

The following out of town guests attended the services: Mr. and Mrs. J. E. Wooley, of South Charleston, Mr. and Mrs. Lewis Hunter of London, Ohio, Mr. and Mrs. Hartford Garrard, and Mr. Willis Hill all of London, and Mrs. Waker of South Charleston, Mrs. James Lewis, Mr. Edward Florence, Miss Lulu Stroup, Mr. Albert Botkin and Mr. Peter Hill of South Charleston.

FATHER AND SON ARRESTED ON CHARGE OF CHICKEN STEALING

W. R. Spurlock, and his son, Esta Spulock, 17, of Home Avenue, near the O. S. and S. O. Home entrance, have been arrested by the Sheriff and his deputies on charge of stealing a number of chickens, the property of Mrs. Minnie Davis of the New Burlington pike.

Fifteen Plymouth Rock chickens were stolen from the barn of Mrs. Davis' farm where they are kept, one night last week. Tuesday, the chicken thieves again made a visit to the Davis hen house, this time eight or nine White Leghorns being missed. The barn was not locked, and on both occasions Mrs. Davis was spending the night at the home of her son-in-law and daughter, Mr. and Mrs. Edward Nichols of the New Burlington pike.

Spurlock will likely be arraigned on the charge in the court of Mag. J. E. Jones, while the boy will appear in Probate Court as he is a minor. It is alleged that they had not been selling the chickens, but had been eating them and the authorities traced them through the feathers.

NINTH ANNIVERSARY OF HOME OBSERVED

Evangelistic services at Third Baptist Church, East Main Street.

Increased attendance and fervent religious enthusiasm, marks the special evangelistic services now in progress at Third Baptist Church, Thursday evening. From John 1:43 Dr. J. Wesley Carter preached a forceful sermon on "Bringing Men to Christ." The speaker said "That successful soul winners had personal acquaintance with, and saving knowledge of Jesus Christ." "That individual Christians, the Church itself is saved to serve," "That the ultimate end of all church activity should be to bring men to Christ." "This task," said the preacher, "is all important, divinely imperative, eminently urgent." Dr. Carter will preach Friday evening, morning, afternoon and at night on Sunday, and each evening next week. Hear him!

IS NOT HAPPIER WOMAN IN STATE

That's What Mrs. Brown Says Since Tanlac So Completely Restored Her Health.

"I don't believe there's a happier woman in Ohio now than I am for Tanlac has put an end to troubles that had been pulling me down for three years, and has restored me to the best of health," was the enthusiastic statement made recently by Mrs. Francis Brown, of Krumroy, Ohio, while in Akron.

"Before I got Tanlac I suffered dreadfully from indigestion and nervousness, but that's all a thing of the past now. I couldn't eat a meal without feeling sick for hours afterwards and my breath had a very disagreeable odor. I had terrible pains in my back, shoulders and chest, my arms hurt so bad I could hardly raise my hands above my head. My sleep was nervous and restless, and I felt tired out all the time.

"I'm just enjoying the best of health though now, for Tanlac has put an end to all troubles, and I never have an ache or pain. I can do all my housework with ease, and have so much strength in my arms I can bear down on the broom and just make the dust fly. I'm so happy over my recovery I just go around rejoicing over it, and I'll always recommend Tanlac as the best medicine ever made."

Tanlac is sold in Xenia by Sayre & Hemphill; in Yellow Springs by A. Finley; Bowersville, N. K. Bower; Fairfield, Paul P. Young; Osborn, C. J. Logsdon; New Burlington, W. C. Smith.

WE ARE SURE THE WOMEN WILL VOTE AS A UNIT FOR DISARMAMENT.

If the war has done nothing else, it has taken the question of disarmament out of the mollycoddle class of dishwater pacifism and made it a subject of serious consideration in the highest councils of the land. The verdict, "Never again!" of some two millions of men who faced modern warfare "over there" is making itself felt throughout the country and is echoed by the newly enfranchised women. And, besides, there are considerations of economy.

Therefore it is not surprising that news dispatches from the national capital during the last week or so have been filled with reports of efforts by hard-headed senators and business-minded representatives to arrive at some conclusion as to how to rid the world of the curse of armaments. The Senate has refused to create an army of the size demanded by Secretary Baker because the country has not gone into the League of Nations. The Borah resolution calling for a halt in the naval building of several of the great powers is still under consideration. Besides, and still more significant, General Tasker Bliss appeared last week before the naval affairs committee pleading for an immediate halt in the race for armament and urging the United States to take the lead. It is new for a great military leader to urge the policy of reducing armies and navies. And it is significant that General Pershing has also done so.

As a further indication of how senators' and representatives' minds are grappling with this problem, the Brooks resolution asking the President to call a world conference to consider disarmament by all nations was reported favorably by the House committee on foreign affairs.

Just where all this discussion will lead no one can foretell at this moment. The significance lies in the fact that it took place at all. The women of the country should not hesitate to introduce their point of view into the great question of disarmament which is now raging in the national capital.

GUESS THE IRRECONCILABLES HAVE TAKEN HOOVER'S SCALP.

The political element in the United States senate that has bitterly opposed the idea of Herbert Hoover going into the Harding cabinet is all smiles once more. For, at last they are confident and cocksure they have taken the cabinet scalp of the aforesaid Hoover and nailed it to the door along with ex-Senator Root's and the Wilson League of Nations.

While there has been no official announcement from Marion as to any cabinet post, the latest "grape-vine" to Washington is to the effect that the President-elect has finally eliminated Hoover from his cabinet slate.

Of course, Harding may pull a surprise and name Hoover yet, but senators, who, up until the week-end were just as sure as could be the former food administrator would go in as secretary of labor, now confide in the "cloak room" gossip their certainty that this "fight" is over. They will be the most surprised and chagrined bunch of senators on earth if it turns out otherwise.

Hoover, it is said, has had no lusty ambition for the cabinet. His one big idea now is to carry on to completion the tremendous task he has undertaken of feeding the starving children of Central Europe. However, his position has been understood to be that if needed and desired he would go into the cabinet, provided it didn't interfere with this work. It is believed however that Mr. Harding will offer him a post on some big commission so as to make him a part of the administration even though outside the cabinet.

IN THE FUTURE, THE FACTORY AND EDUCATION TO BE CO-PARTNERS.

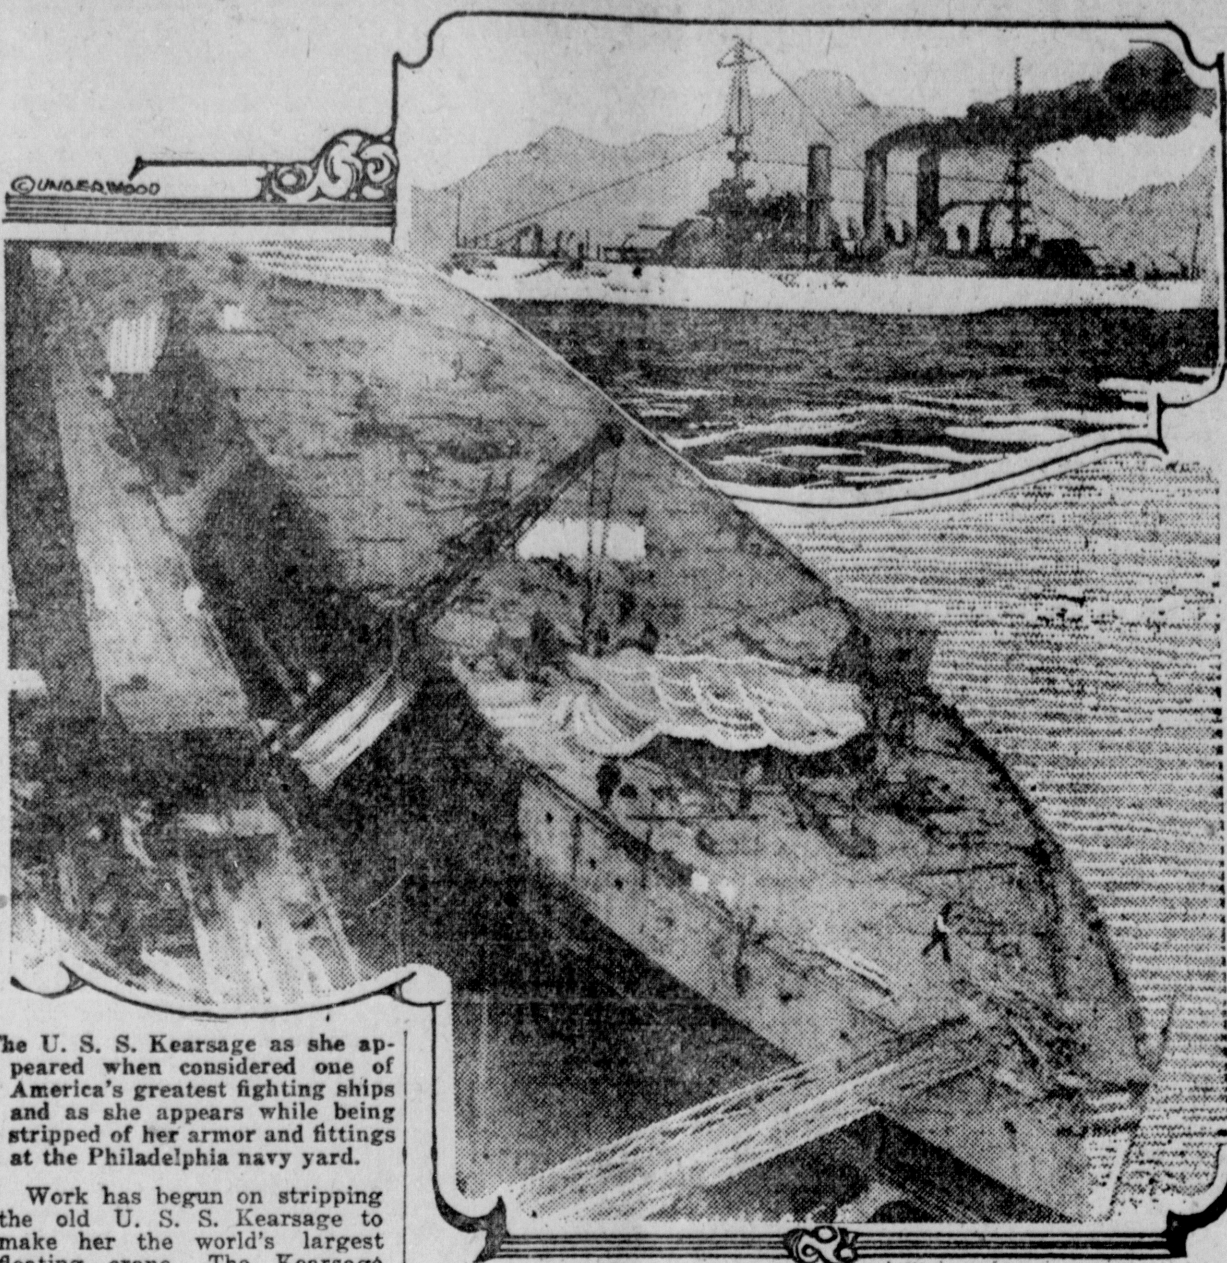

Henry Ford has announced his purpose to establish a technical college in Detroit. The course of study is to lead to degrees in mechanical, electrical and chemical engineering. Freshmen are to receive scholarships of approximately 20 a week. His purpose is to connect education more closely with life, so that "there need be no period of readjustment after graduation."

Alternate weeks of the school year are to be divided between lectures, theory, classroom study and practical shop work in the factory with motors, tractors, blast furnaces, either in mining, lumbering or manufacture. It is reported that already a thousand young men have applied for admission.

This project is far more practical than some of his earlier ventures. The establishment of such a school, issuing out of and connected with a factory, shows the tendency of industry to inject itself into education and of education to connect itself more closely with daily life. Such a venture is not new in idea, and it is significant that Mr. Ford should feel the need of furthering it.

Better morals, better sanitary conditions, better health, better wages are the practical results of the factory system proposed, as compared with what preceded it. In the near future more than in the past the factory is going to connect more closely with education, and the two together will work for enlightenment and welfare, not only among their own workers, but for the communities in which they are placed.

FORMER PRIDE OF NAVY IS STRIPPED FOR WORK SHIP

The U. S. S. Kearsage as she appeared when considered one of America's greatest fighting ships and as she appears while being stripped of her armor and fittings at the Philadelphia navy yard.

Work has begun on stripping the old U. S. S. Kearsage to make her the world's largest floating crane. The Kearsage was once the pride of the navy. The photographs show her as she was in her prime, and also in the process of being stripped of her armor and fittings to be equipped with a huge crane. The photograph was taken at the Philadelphia navy yard. It is expected that the Kearsage, which will proceed from port to port where needed, under her own power, will be the largest floating crane in the world. A modern triple 16-inch gun turret weighs 200 or more tons and is too heavy for most cranes.

SERIES OF SERMONS ON COMMANDMENTS STARTS SUNDAY

Rev. Charles P. Proudfoot will begin an evening series of sermons starting Sunday evening on the ten commandments.

3. The Sacred Name.
4. The Sacred Day.
5. The Sacred Parents.
6. The Sacred Life.
7. The Sacred Body.
8. The Sacred Property.
9. The Sacred Reputation.
10. The Sacred Desires.

CITY'S POOR IN NEED OF HELP SAY WORKERS

The poor of the city are in the most deplorable condition at the present time than they have ever been since the organization of the Social Service League in this city, the workers of the league announce.

Families that have never needed the help of the Social Service League before have been forced to call upon it during the past few months, causing the staff of the organization to be decreased.

Beginning February the first the Social Service League is inaugurating a drive for memberships, to aid in the betterment of the living conditions of the city. Plans are being made now for the drive and the co-operation of the citizens of Xenia is solicited in helping the work of the organization.

NEW RECORD SET IN COUNTY OFFICE

Thursday was the biggest day in point of money take in, in the history of the Greene County Treasurer's office.

This is the statement of County Treasurer J. E. Sutton, who said that belated taxpayers, turned in $91,686 in taxes into the officers of the county on the last day allowed for payment of the December taxes.

The amount would indicate that there were many who put off the payment and who took care of this duty at the eleventh hour. The biggest day in point of money received formerly was last year when $46,000 was taken in, in one day.

WILBERFORCE GRAD WITH MINSTREL SHOW

Herbert's Greater Minstrels, which comes to the Opera House here Monday night is rated as one of the largest colored minstrel troupes on the road today.

It is an eastern production, booked to this city by C. L. McClellan and it offers an attractive mixture of singing, dancing and novelty acts. Of especial local interest is the fact that George Glasgow, base singer with the company, is a graduate of Wilberforce University near here.

The Company features the Great Adams, trick bicycle rider, who offers entertainment of interest during the street parade in the afternoon as well as during the show. The Company is said to be the best all-colored aggregation on the road and carries 40 people.

BUY GERMAN PLANES
Washington, Jan. 21.—Fourteen German built aeroplanes have been purchased by various departments of the U. S. government since the close of the war and three of these machines have been burned together with their pilots according to charges made in the house by Rep. Madden of Illinois.

BEGINNING RIGHT.

Let's all begin the new year right, and make a record snowy white. Let's drive our cars twelve miles an hour, and not show off their pep and power by stepping fiercely on the gas and slaying people as we pass. What is the hurry, anyway? Why speed her up? We have all day to get to Punktown-on-the-High, where we expect to spend the night. If we'd cut out the foolish haste the present wild and wanton waste of human life would promptly shrink—it's worth a new year vow, I think. A more important vow this is than swearing off on drugstore fizz, or punk cigars that smell like shoes when you have deftly lit the fuse. Of course the gents who have no cars may waste their vows on hay cigars, but we who push our clanking vans should make some new and drastic plans. We're slaying thousands every year as down the turnpike we career; the dead are lying where we raced, and all because of maudlin haste. What is the hurry, anyhow? It's all uncalled for, you'll allow; we have all day in which to reach the famous Bilge-town-by-the-Beach.

TEETH
Practically everything I can say about teeth has been said to you already by your dentist. The slogan which the dentists have been spreading through the country lately is "A clean tooth never decays." I do not know whether this is literally true, but it is true enough so that every woman should keep her teeth and mouth as absolutely clean as she can. It is not only a matter of health, it is a matter of beauty also—which I think is the strongest argument to appeal to, at least the very young woman. Health we take for granted but beauty is a thing we strive for. An enormous number of people are suffering from Riggs Disease, which means that the gums gradually recede and the teeth eventually drop out. This can be cured if it is treated in time and it can be prevented by absolute cleanliness. A good dentist in cleaning the teeth will scrape off this tartar getting well down under the gums so that all this irritating film is removed. A careless dentist will only take off the tartar above the gum and that which is underneath will go on with its bad work. This is some thing which you yourself must be careful of when you choose your dentist. An excellent thing is to massage the gums with the fingers after you have thoroughly cleaned the teeth. Then rinse out the mouth with an antiseptic. Your dentist will recommend the best tooth powder and the best mouth wash. He will probably even recommend a soft wooden or a quill toothpick—to be used, of course in private. S. O. C.—If you will send me a letter with a self-addressed, stamped envelope enclosed, I will send you a formula for the best developing tonic. This is a perfectly harmless, fattening tonic which acts particularly upon the mammary glands. I will send you at the same time a formula for making Honey-Almond lotion, which is splendid to use for chapped hands in the winter. However, as far as the chapped lips go, you will find it an excellent idea to purchase a plain, untinted lip stick, and to rub this cream on your lips before you go out in the cold weather. The untinted ones are nothing but special white cream, which stays on the lips and prevents chapping.

MANAGER EXPLAINS INCREASED COST OF CLEANING OF STREETS

Because a number of inquiries concerning the cost of street cleaning, have been made to City Manager Kenyon Riddle, the latter has prepared the following statement showing the total cost of the work for the past three years, under the commission manager plan of government.

Previous to 1918, according to Mr. Riddle, the cost of street cleaning was paid for from the general city funds, which means that the city at large paid the cost of cleaning the few streets that were paved but if other streets needed cleaning or improvements, the residents along the street paid the majority of the cost.

The City Commissioners looked upon this arrangement as unfair and in April legislation was passed which put the cost of cleaning paved streets on the people owning property along such streets, in other words, those directly benefited by being required to pay the costs, the city at large only paying its share of such cleaning, which is about 15 per cent. The cost of such street cleaning for 1918 was as follows:

Teams, with drivers, at $4.00 per day	$1,086.40
Labor, from work house, and practically free	52.20
Miscellaneous, interest on notes, brooms, scrapers	77.06
Street flushing machine	1,765.50

Amount charged to special cleaning dist.	2,981.16
Added to first 3 months 1918 borne by city	1,017.77

Total cost of cleaning paved streets	$3,998.93
Amount appropriated for 1918	$4,000.00
Amount actually spent	3,998.93
Amount collected by special assessment	3,538.18

The cost of cleaning paved streets for 1919 was as follows:

Teams, with drivers at $5 per day	$1,934.95
Labor, from work house at $1 per day	1,342.95
Miscellaneous	200.00

Total	$3,478.19
Amount appropriated for 1919	$4,000.00
Amount actually spent	$3,478.19
Amount collected by special assessment	$3,100.00

In 1920 the costs were as follows:

Teams, with drivers at $5 per day	$2,114.50
Labor, cost ranged between $3 and $4 per day	3,523.75
Miscellaneous	313.62

Refunds	10.73
Amount appropriated for 1920	$6,000.00
Amount actually spent	$5,962.65
Amount collected by special assessment	$5,000.00

These figures show a great increase in labor charged to street cleaning according to City Manager Riddle, a circumstance that is explained on pages 45 and 46 of the city's annual report. This report shows that in 1918 the city received $3,355 worth of labor free and practically all for that year was used for street cleaning. In 1919 the city received $5,616.80 worth of labor free, of which $2,166.60 worth was in the street cleaning department.

The increase in the mileage of paved streets also helps to run up the total cost of cleaning them, it is explained by the Manager. There are now over 11 miles of paved streets or about 1,742,000 square feet. The average amount of rubbish picked up every day amounts to six cubic yards or three large wagon loads. It takes an average of three men with brooms and pans and one team full time and one team half time, each with drivers to carry on the work, according to the Manager's figures. These figures represent an average as there are times when it requires six or eight men and two or three teams in order to keep up with the work. At other times the force is below this average.

The city's paved streets are divided into three districts for cleaning, that is, the business district, the wide residence streets and the narrow residence streets. The rates are four cents, eight cents and 15 cents per front foot. A person living on a wide residence street has the street kept fairly clean, easily up to the standard of others, according to the Manager, for a cost of $4 per year for a 50 foot lot. This is pointed out, is considerably less than it could be done for under an individual bargain.

"So quickly does the dirt accumulate that if it were not for the cleaning, the streets would be in a terribly unsanitary and unsightly condition in no time. To live in a city where adequate attention is not given to street cleaning would demonstrate this. If the streets here were not cleaned for sixty days, it would require a street scraper to remove the dirt," declared Manager Riddle.

"At a conference of physicians held in Chicago last winter to discuss the spread of certain disease and especially influenza, it was held that ordinary street dust contributed as much to the spreading of the disease as any other common cause. It was their contention that at that time, that a street flusher, such as is used now in Xenia, exceeds any other method for removing the fine dust that carries disease germs into the air. "Very few cities the size of Xenia pay more attention to the condition of their streets and storm drains and very few cities can claim a better condition of health than Xenia," says Mr. Riddle. "The city report referred to above can be obtained at the City Auditor's office."

ARE NOT ALARMED AT SLAUGHTER OF A HERD OF BISON

Washington D. C. Jan. 21.—Although a few years ago slaughter of even a few bison would have been deemed a national calamity, the Biological Survey of the United States Department of Agriculture will make no definite effort to stop the proposed shooting of a considerable number of these animals on the privately owned Antelope Island in Great Salt Lake, announced in news dispatches.

While regretting the announced decision of the owner of the herd to turn the fine animals over to sportsmen at $200 a head, Dr. E. W. Nelson, Chief of the Biological Survey, does not find it expedient to curtail other and more necessary game preservation measures by seeking a congressional appropriation to buy this herd at the owner's price. A bill to purchase the island and animals for $300,000 was recently introduced by Congressman Welling of Utah.

"The dark day of the bison has passed," said Dr. Nelson, reverting to the time not many years ago when the principal remnant of the countless herds that once roamed this continent consisted of a pitiful group of less than 100 in Yellowstone National Park, where they were prey to poachers because of inefficient protective laws.

"As a matter of fact, with the present rate of increase, it may become a problem in a few years how we shall care for the buffalo on the national preserves. It would be desirable for the Government to own the Antelope Island herd but there are other and more urgent uses for the money. I would much rather it were spent to buy additional range land north and south of Yellowstone Park for the sustenance of the elk which find insufficient winter feed within the grounds."

Statistics of the American bison Society show that on January 1, 1920, there were 3,393 captive and wild buffalo in the United States, of which 1,632 were under the direct protection of the Federal Government. The rate at which the animals are "coming back" may be partially realized from the fact that the January 1, 1920, figures give 298 buffalo on the national bison range at Moose, Mont., while recent figures show 336. The nucleus of this herd was 40 buffalo in 1909. The leader is Kalispell Chief, a fine old veteran who has maintained the primacy of the herd through the years. This herd is under the protection of the Biological Survey as are also 61 animals at Wind Cave, S. Dak., 7 at Sully's Hill, N. Dak., and 28 at Niobrara, Nebr. Of the other buffalo under the Government protection, the January, 1920, figures give Washington, 6 on the Pisga Game preserve, N. C., 3 on the Platt National Park, Okla., 119 on the Wichita National Forest, Okla., and 502 in Yellowstone National Park. There were 489 buffalo calves born in the United States in 1919.

CALLED BY DEATH AFTER LONG SICKNESS

Mrs. Mattie Adamson, 60, of Dayton, mother of Hood S. Adamson of this city, died at her home in that city Thursday morning after suffering from cancer for the last six months.

Let Us Make War on Your Rheumatism and Liver Troubles By Taking the Famous U & S Stomach Bitters.

Sufferers of Rheumatism and Liver Troubles will read with great interest what Chas. D. Saxton of London, Ohio, has to say. His letter follows:

U & S Remedy Co., London, Ohio, Gentlemen:

I had rheumatism and liver trouble for more than a year, when I was treated by doctors, being unable to do any work. I was advised to try U & S Stomach Bitters. I have always had very little use for patent medicines, but must say that I am a warm convert now. I began taking the U & S Remedy, and began to get better at once. After taking only two bottles I am cured sound and well. I worked during the coldest weather last winter and never felt any more of the rheumatism and nervous dizziness. It is the greatest medicine I ever saw, and I have told several people of its wonderful cure. It certainly does the work, and if everyone knew of its great healing powers there would be less sickness and suffering in the world.

Yours truly,
CHARLES D. SAXTON,

MOTORAIDS

Only carelessness and lack of attention can account for rattles and squeaks in a car. The noisy car is a reflection on the owner and he is regarded by other owners as a careless person who allows his car to deteriorate.

Sometimes it is hard to find the squeak, but it is usually easy to find the big ones. The one and only enemy of the squeak is the oil can and the single enemy of the rattle is the wrench. Keep the car tightened up and the parts greased sufficiently and your car will run as silently and smoothly after a year's use as when you bought it.

It is necessary to see that all parts are greased regularly. If you have a chauffeur see that he takes care of the car properly, that he goes over it carefully at all times and greases and oils it when he should. If you drive your own car it is expected you will be just as careful. Keep the car lubricated and greased. It will pay you in added car life, minimum mechanical troubles and greater satisfaction.

TWENTY YEARS AGO

Mr. William Robinson, who resides on Columbus Avenue, this city, and Miss Alice Watson, also of Xenia, were united in marriage last evening by Rev. A. C. Turrell. The bride and groom will immediately occupy their new home on Collier street.

The new metallic circuit to Osborn which has just been put in by the Miami telephone company has had all connections made and Osborn people can now talk to the outside world without a loss of temper. The company is also arranging to connect a number of the farming communities of the county and new telephones in this city are being put in every day, business apparently being on the boom.

Mr. Charles Schmidt returned last evening from New York, having failed to make satisfactory arrangement with the firm he went to engage with as traveling salesman. However, Charlie stayed in New York some days and saw the great city by daylight and gaslight and then made a trip through the Capitol with a party from Boston and saw the sights including a trip down the Potomac.

Mr. William Grotendiek who for some months past has very successfully conducted a billiard room and cigar stand in one of the Wicksam rooms on East Main street, has disposed of the business to Mr. Ollie Dadds and the new proprietor is now in charge.

TROTSKY ENGAGED TO BALLOT DANCER

Paris, Jan. 21.—Leon Trotsky, Russian war minister, is engaged to Mile. Spezievtzova, ballet dancer, we know in New York according to very reliable reports from prominent Russian citizens who have just arrived in Paris.

The engagement, it is said, has been officially known in Moscow since October, although the first news of it came to Europe today.

The romance, according to the arrivals, started last spring when the 20-year-old blonde beauty first appeared in the Moscow Opera House in the second day part in "The Rose Dream Ballet."

Trotsky, it is related fell in love at first sight with the dancer and they became engaged secretly. Simultaneously it was arranged for the young artist to be given the first roles in the production in which she appeared.

EIGHTEEN MEN INJURED
Toledo, Ohio, January 21.—Eighteen men were injured, eleven seriously, when a swinging platform, that formed a bridge between the steamer F. B. Squires and the dock landing at the Toledo Shipbuilding Company yards, collapsed under the weight of workers hurrying to lunch.

ITCHING ECZEMA DRIED RIGHT UP WITH SULPHUR

Any breaking out of the skin, even fiery, itching eczema, can be quickly overcome by applying a little Mentho-Sulphur, says a noted skin specialist. Because of its germ destroying properties, this sulphur preparation instantly brings ease from skin irritation, soothes and heals the eczema right up and leaves the skin clear and smooth.

It never fails to relieve the torment of disfigurement. Sufferers from skin trouble should get a little jar Mentho-Sulphur from any good drug store and use it like a cold cream.

The Columbian Building and Loan Co.

Thirty Years of Growth and Success

Have shown conclusively that one per cent margin is sufficient to pay all the expenses of this company and provide a comfortable surplus. Hundreds of thousands of dollars have been deposited with us to build Columbus homes and all of this money has been loaned on first mortgage security, at one-half of the intrinsic value of the real estate. These loans have enabled us, indeed, retired of us, in all fairness—to pay SIX PER CENT TO DEPOSITORS

The Columbian loans the depositors' money on first mortgage security on real estate—the best security in the world—at seven per cent, leaving a margin to the company to cover its expenses for placing the money safely. The difference between what the company pays for the use of the depositors' money and what the company receives for the loan of this money is sufficient to meet all expenses and lay aside a substantial reserve.

SIX MONTHS OF SUCCESS

This company's flexible plan has been in operation for six months, giving the depositor the advantage of the increased earning power of his money, and the company has been benefited by a large increase in business. Through this flexible plan, operated in all fairness, the depositor and the company are both benefited, and more people can get money with which to build Columbus homes.

STRIKES CALLED OFF.

London, Jan. 21.—The widespread strikes in Austria that were called to begin Thursday did not materialize and perfect quiet and order prevails in the republic, said a news agency dispatch from Vienna today.

WORKING OVERTIME

North Adams, Mass., Jan. 21.—Overtime work has been started at the Wilson print works here. An increase in the number and size of orders is given as the reason.

LEGAL NOTICE

Sealed proposals are invited and will be received by the County Commissioners of Greene County, Ohio, at their office in the Court House in Xenia, O., until 12 o'clock, noon, of the 1st day of February, A. D. 1921, under the provisions of Section 2715 of the Revised Code of Ohio, for the purpose of leasing to the County of Greene County, Ohio, for a term of years, all or part of the lands and buildings located within said county and belonging to either of the counties mentioned in the statutes and will receive bids for active funds from one or more of said banking institutions located in the County Seat of said county.

If the conditions stated in Section 2715-1 make it necessary, said Commissioners will also receive bids from banking institutions belonging to either of said counties and located without said county for the deposit of such excess funds.

Each banking institution or trust company that submits a bid for the inactive deposits shall stipulate the amount of money desired, and also the rate of interest, not less than two per cent per annum on the average daily balance on inactive deposits, and not less than one per cent per annum on the average balance of active deposits, that will be paid for the use of the money of the county as provided by law. Each proposal shall contain the names of the Sureties or Securities, or both, that will be offered to the county in case the proposal be accepted. The right is reserved to reject any or all proposals.

All proposals should be sealed and marked "Depository Proposal." The Board of County Commissioners, 1-13-20 By S. O. HALE, Clerk.

TWO MEN RECOVER FROM WOUNDS AND LEAVE HOSPITAL

Orlo Holden and Charles Chastain, who have been vindicated by the local courts of charges of shooting with intent to wound in connection with the shooting scrape in which they participated with Marshal W. A. Schneider, of Osborn last month, have returned to their homes.

Holden, who was the more seriously injured of the two from the Marshall's bullets, is able to walk. He was accompanied home by Mrs. Reespath, matron of the county children's home at Bowling Green, where the boy was raised and who made a plea in his behalf, and also Attorney Hatfield, of Bowling Green, who is chairman of the State Republican Central Committee, and who was here in behalf of the boy.

It was brought out in the evidence introduced in the court that the boys had entered the alley in the rear of Massie's hardware store, with no intent to commit a crime of a robbery.

SPRINGFIELD MAN ELECTED TO OFFICE

Columbus, O., Jan. 21.—Election of officers featured the closing session of the annual meeting of the Ohio Association of the Baking Industry here. The officers are: A. G. Reek, Columbus, president; E. C. Reek, Youngstown, vice president; Harry B. Apple, Columbus, secretary. The new executive committee includes Joseph Wallace, Cincinnati, and Arthur Trafford, Akron.

GREEK MILITARY SATISFIED.

Paris, January 21.—The Greek Legation here declared that the military situation in Asia Minor was most satisfactory. Recent Constantinople dispatches stating that the Turkish Nationalists had entered Brussa, 57 miles southeast of Constantinople, had no foundation in fact, the legation asserted.

I HAVE A SPLENDID APPETITE, CAN EAT ANYTHING NOW SINCE I'VE TAKEN EARLE'S HYPO-COD

Rest good at night. My nerves are stronger, declared this man

ONE BOTTLE DID THE WORK FOR HIM

"I suffered from nervousness, a rundown system, loss of appetite and was not able to rest good nights," declared Mr. Comeans whose address is given below.

"I now have a splendid appetite can eat anything that comes along and I have only taken one bottle of Earle's Hypo-Cod I never thought one bottle of medicine could do so much. I rest so much better at nights now and my nerves are strong and in much better condition. I have been greatly benefited by the use of Hypo-Cod. It surely is a fine medicine," continued Mr. F. H.

Comeans, 1067 Michigan Ave., Columbus, O.

Good health, more strength, better appetite, strong lungs, steadier nerves and richer blood means better work, easier living and more fun out of life and it costs very little when you stop to think.

Earle's Hypo-Cod is simply a newer, more modern, more powerful tonic and is so pleasant to take even children love it and elderly folks say it agrees perfectly with the weakest stomach. See formula on bottle.

FIVE NEW DIRECTORS FOR MOTOR CLUB NAMED AT MEETING

Raymond Beck, chairman of the Good Roads Committee of the Ohio State Automobile Association, Carl Mueller, manager of the Columbus Automobile Club, H. A. Kerr, Columbus attorney and also attorney for the Columbus Club and Charles C. James, secretary of the Ohio State Automobile Association were speakers at the first annual meeting and banquet of the newly organized Greene County Automobile Club held at the Chamber of Commerce Thursday evening.

Dr. A. C. Messenger, temporary president of the club was chairman of the meeting Tuesday night, at which five new members of the board of directors were named. The temporary directors named several weeks ago were unanimously made permanent directors, but as only five of them will be eligible to serve, five new directors were named. The new directors are Paul Petz, Ernest Beatty, Pearl White, N. N. Hunter, and Ed. Ballard. The club constitution calls for eighteen members on the board, and the other eight directors will be named during the year as the membership increases. The board will elect the permanent officers.

Mr. Kerr, of the attorney staff of the Columbus Club speaking first, told of the advantages of a legal department and urged the securing of an attorney to represent the local club. Carl Mueller, manager of the Columbus Club, gave an interesting outline of the numerous points of service that a club should take up. Mr. Beck, who routed all military truck convoys for the government during the war, and who is an authority of some years experience on good roads, explained what is being done and what has been done to establish good roads in this city. Mr. James, secretary of the Ohio State Association, supplemented the addresses of the others with an explanation of the advantages of affiliation with the state association and the American Automobile Association and he referred to several bills favoring the motorists and good roads that state and national associations are now encouraging.

J. W. Prugh and City Manager Kenyon Riddle, called on impromptu by President Messenger spoke briefly encouraging organization of motorists as a means to an end.

A chicken banquet was served by Mr. and Mrs. Jacob Kany.

THIS IS THE BIRTHDAY OF JOHN FITCH January 21, 1743

The life of John Fitch, pioneer in steam navigation in America is a record of disappointment that ended in disaster.

John Fitch was born in Windsor, Connecticut in 1743. He was the son of a farmer and received the usual slight education of a boy of his time and position. At 17 he went to sea, but after a few voyages decided he did not like that sort of life. He came back and was a clockmaker and a silversmith. During the War of Independence he made a large fortune and bought an estate in Virginia. Some years later, making the "dangerous trip from Kentucky to Philadelphia, he was captured by Indians, but released.

While exploring the great northwest, to make a map of it he had an idea that the big rivers might be navigated by steam. He was years persuading people to back his invention. Finally, however, he started a steam boat line on the Delaware. His claim to be the inventor of the steamboat was disputed by Rumsey, his business failed for lack of trade. He went to France to introduce his invention there and when he came back, his Virginia estate had been overrun by squatters.

His life from the time he had his great idea was only poverty and disappointment and in 1798 he went out again to Kentucky where he committed suicide, leaving a journal of his bitter experiences to his children and posterity. From this a very good biography of his life was compiled later.

HAVE DARK HAIR AND LOOK YOUNG

Nobody can Tell when you Darken Gray, Faded Hair with Sage Tea.

Grandmother kept her hair beautifully darkened, glossy and attractive with a brew of Sage Tea and Sulphur. Whenever her hair took on that dull, faded or streaked appearance, this simple mixture was applied with wonderful effect. By asking at any drug store for "Wyeth's Sage and Sulphur Compound," you will get a large bottle of this old-time recipe, improved by the addition of other ingredients, all ready to use, at very little cost. This simple mixture can be depended upon to restore natural color and beauty to the hair.

A well-known downtown druggist says everybody uses Wyeth's Sage and Sulphur Compound now because it darkens so naturally and evenly that nobody can tell it has been applied—it's so easy to use, too. You simply dampen a comb or soft brush and draw it through your hair, taking one strand at a time. By morning the gray hair disappears; after another application or two, it is restored to its natural color and looks glossy, soft and beautiful. This preparation is a delightful toilet requisite. It is not intended for the cure, mitigation or prevention of disease.

HOUSEHOLD HINTS BY MRS. MORTON

MENU HINT.
Breakfast. Cereal, Bacon, Grapes, Steamed Eggs, Coffee.
Noon Dinner. Brunswick Stew, Raisin Bread, Butter, Honey, Cabbage Salad, Apple Fluff.
Supper. Sweet Potatoes, Celery, Cottage Cheese, Bread, Butter, Cake, Apple Butter, Stewed Pears.

DINNER DISHES.

Brunswick Stew.—For the basis of this stew take the bony pieces which are left from a chicken the day before. It is well to save a piece or so of the better pieces to make the stew richer—a leg or a thigh.

Two quarts boiling water, four tomatoes or one pint canned, two onions finely diced, one cup cooked lima beans, two cups corn (fresh if possible), two teaspoons of salt, small red pepper diced. Cook until the meat is tender. Add vegetables and simmer for an hour. Remove meat from bones and put into stew. Serve hot.

Cannelloni of Beef.—Chop very fine two pounds of the round of beef. Season with grated onion, lemon peel, nutmeg, minced parsley, salt, pepper and melted butter. Mix with a beaten egg and shape into a loaf. Dredge with flour, roll in buttered paper and bake for half an hour, basting with melted butter and the drippings. Serve with tomato sauce. Easily made and delicious.

Stuffed Peppers a la Italiana.—Six medium sized peppers, two medium sized tomatoes, one-half cup macaroni cheese (can be purchased at any Italian store), two eggs, two tablespoons lard or other shortening, small piece garlic or onion chopped fine, seasoning to taste. Wash peppers and cut tops off, leaving hole large enough to stuff them. Peel tomatoes and cut up fine, adding cheese (grated), eggs, shortening and garlic or onion. Stir good, then stuff peppers.

Can be baked in casserole or cooked on stove, although casserole is better. Lay a layer of tomatoes at bottom of casserole, then lay the peppers on top, upright if they can be put this way; if not, on their sides, then put in oven to bake; when nearly done add tomato (stuffing) which is left, and finish baking. It is done when peppers are real soft. Serve hot.

Use one pepper for each person, unless more are needed.

TRIO OF TASTY SALADS.

Cabbage Salad.—Shred cabbage very fine. Whip one-half cup of cream, add two tablespoons vinegar, sugar. Pour over cabbage. Add one-half cup hickory nut meats. Serve very cold.

Fruit Salad.—Two large Bartlett pears, two large peaches, two teaspoons red raspberry, currant conserve, lettuce, mayonnaise; pare fruit. On lettuce leaves place half of pear, core removed, core side up. Fill with conserve. Place half peach, pit side down, over pear and conserve. Cover with sweetened mayonnaise, garnish with finely chopped celery. Serve all salads very cold.

Tomato and Nut Salad.—Loosen skin of tomato by placing in scalding water for a few seconds. Peel, and after chilling scoop out inside. To the pulp removed add about equal quantity of chopped walnuts and green peppers. Mix with any good dressing and replace mixture in tomato shell. Serve in nests of crisp lettuce leaves.

The Woman He Married

BY JANE PHELPS

AN OFFER OF HELP

Chapter 70
Mr. Burns came early, as he had said he would, before three o'clock. He seemed very pleasant, was lovely to Junior, to whom he had brought a toy horse, and very flattering to me. He commented upon my appearance, saying:

"So few women know how to dress. You seem to have the art of wearing clothes well."

He could have said nothing that would have appealed to me more strongly. After a bit I spoke of Dick, then emboldened by his attitude, the nice way he responded, I mentioned how worried and anxious he had been, and that he had lost a great deal in I. C. C.

"That is of course, a great deal for us," I explained, blushing that I talked about money to anyone but Dick or a woman friend.

"Too bad Mr. Williams couldn't have hung on. The stock is all right, it was only a raid."

"But Dick didn't know that, then—I don't think he had money enough to take care of it any longer. Our capital is very limited."

"Too bad! I wish you would let me help you."

There it was at last! His proposition to help us. I trembled so I could scarcely speak, as I replied:

"Thank you Mr. Burns, that will be lovely of you."

"Call me Clarence, Nan." Then "I think you have the prettiest name I know, Nan!" He repeated it with a smirk.

I felt embarrassed, unaccountably so. Why should his tone and manner change so suddenly? Perhaps I had imagined it. He was trying to be kind.

"I never have called anyone but my husband by his first name—any man," I said rather stiltedly.

"Then it is time you commenced," he laughed, and patted my hand which hung over the arm of my chair. Then, "Now tell me what Dick is doing in the market. You say he let his stock go?"

"Yes he has only some T. L. M. now."

"Then why is he worried?" "Because he lost so much of our capital, and, well, because we owe quite a good deal. You see, I stumbled on, 'he—we—were so sure that you knew all about I. C. C. that we bought more than we would have otherwise. I left my dressmaker and others wait, thinking we surely would make enough to warrant it.' I spoke of the dressmaker because he had mentioned my dressing, and because I felt in some way it was more usual than to owe for household expenses."

"Who makes your charming gowns?" He still held my hand, and patted it in a fatherly fashion.

"Felice."

"You are an extravagant little mix to go to her. Even if I am a bachelor I know something of her prices. But how much do you owe?" I flushed painfully to have the question so baldly put. I don't know what I expected. I wanted him to help us, yet somehow I felt terribly embarrassed and uneasy. I think the uneasiness was uppermost. Yet I quickly thought of what I should say—the amount I should tell him. Everyone said he was very wealthy, a few hundred would mean nothing to him I figured.

"Two thousand dollars," I said faintly. I counted in what I owed both Mildred and Clara, and that would just about pay are debts.

A long drawn whistle puckered his lips.

"You are extravagant! I like your nerve though. A woman owes it to herself to look her best, and you certainly pay that debt, if no other."

He took out his checkbook and I thought was going to give me the $2,000 right then and there, but instead he leaned toward me, pulled me from my chair, and tried to embrace me. I drew back insulted, horrified.

I scarcely understood the full meaning of what he was saying, but I ordered him from the house. That he should dare say such things to me, Dick's wife! That he should even think he could! It was terrible. When he understood that I meant what I said, he went—but not before he had said sneeringly, he hoped I would be able to pay Felice and others I might owe without his assistance.

I hated him! I hated myself! I felt unclean, as if I had been in some terribly dirty place. And I couldn't tell Dick. He had enough to worry him now without telling him of Mr. Burns' insult to me. It would drive him frantic and lead to—I shuddered as I thought of what he might do if he knew.

Tomorrow—Mrs. Gray Comes to Nan's Assistance.
